A supplement to the act, intituled, "An Act for amending the several acts for electing members of assembly."

SECTION I. WHEREAS by one of the said acts, Preamble. intituled, "An Act to ascertain the number of members of assembly, and to regulate the elections," passed in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and five, it is enacted, "That the sheriff, or some other of the persons appointed judges of the election of members of assembly, shall open the paper of an illiterate elector containing the names of those persons for whom he votes, read the same names, and ask such elector whether these are the persons for whom he votes."

SECT. 2. And whereas it is highly dangerous to the freedom of elections in this commonwealth that the sheriffs and other persons appointed judges of elections, should continue to be invested with the power of searching and discovering for whom any elector shall vote to represent him: Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the representatives of the freemen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in general assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, no sheriff, coroner, in-
